

LAWS AT A GLANCE FY 2016

Founded by three women who lived in Loudoun County, LAWS was incorporated in 1984 under the name Loudoun Citizens for Social Justice and does business as Loudoun Abused Women's Shelter (LAWS). We are a private, non-profit organization with 35 employees and a volunteer Board of Directors of approximately 17 individuals who provide leadership and oversight.

In Fiscal Year 2016 LAWS' staff and volunteers:

- Touched the lives of 1,111 individuals through direct services and educated 5,929 individuals through prevention, outreach and awareness programs
- Provided 3,381 bed nights of shelter to 31 women and 34 children at the LAWS Emergency Shelter
- Responded to 886 crisis hotline calls on the LAWS 24-hour Hotline
- Provided 548 adult victims of domestic violence with walk-in crisis services, support groups, advocacy, financial assistance and/or counseling through LAWS Domestic Violence Services at our Community Services Center in Leesburg
- Assisted 265 victims with legal services through LAWS Legal Services
- Provided counseling, advocacy, and/or support groups to 226 adult victims of sexual assault through LAWS Sexual Assault Services
- Helped 190 youth and children deal with the abuse in their lives with counseling, support groups and advocacy through LAWS Youth & Children's Services
- Served 216 victims of child abuse through the Loudoun Child Advocacy Center
- 88 families with 101 children participated in the Loudoun Nurturing Parenting Program
- Approximately 75 dedicated volunteers and Board members donated over 5,000 hours of volunteer service to help LAWS achieve our mission.

In FY 2016, the LAWS organizational budget was $1,340,000. Approximate budgeted sources of funding are: government grants: $700,000; United Way contributions: $50,000; thrift shop: $200,000; fundraising, donations and private grants: $390,000.

LAWS employs approximately 30 staff: 12 full time; 4 part time and 14 hourly employees. Hourly employees include night/weekend shelter staff and Nurturing Program Staff.

LAWS' Milestones

1984: Three Loudoun women founded Loudoun Citizens for Social Justice, and began working on their first project: The Loudoun Abused Women's Shelter (LAWS).

1985: The shelter location was selected and opened in 1985, providing 15 beds to women and children fleeing domestic violence.

1991: LAWS rented office space in Leesburg to begin providing services to women who were not residing in shelter.

1992: LAWS began providing legal services, making LAWS one of the first domestic violence programs in the state to provide free legal representation to victims.

1995: LAWS opened The Resourceful Woman Thrift Shop, accepting gently used clothing and household items to give to victims in need and to sell to the community.

1996: LAWS added Sexual Assault Services to its programs, providing Loudoun with a rape crisis center in addition to a domestic violence program.

2001: LAWS Community Services Center opened at 105 East Market Street in Leesburg. At this center, LAWS provides victims with legal representation and advocacy, counseling, parenting classes, support groups, and support.

2003: LAWS added a Spanish-speaking case worker to the staff to assist Spanish-speaking victims.

2004: LAWS completed renovated its shelter, installed a new septic system, and made many improvements to the property.

2005: LAWS with other community partners formed the Loudoun County Domestic Abuse Response Team, a coordinated community response to address domestic violence and to hold perpetrators accountable.

2007: LAWS was awarded funding to develop and open a Child Advocacy Center for the Loudoun Community. The Loudoun Child Advocacy Center opened in December 2008.

2013: LAWS selected "Non Profit of the Year" at the Loudoun County Chamber of Commerce's 2013 Small Business Awards.

2014: LAWS is awarded "Non Profit of the Year" at the Loudoun Times-Mirror's 2014 Citizen of the Year Awards.

2016: The Loudoun CAC becomes an Accredited Child Advocacy Center by National Children's Alliance. LAWS currently operates a 12-bed shelter; a legal practice with two full-time attorneys; a 24-hour crisis hotline; has three counselors, two advocates (including a bilingual advocate), and three shelter case managers on staff; facilitates six, 8-week parenting classes a year; and serves 1,111 victims.

LAWS is a member of the Virginia Sexual and Domestic Violence Action Alliance, the Loudoun County Domestic Abuse Response Team, the Loudoun Human Services Network, and the Loudoun County Chamber of Commerce. The Loudoun Child Advocacy Center is a member of the Children's Advocacy Centers of Virginia and an accredited member of the National Children's Alliance.

LAWS is a proud member of the United Way of the National Capital Area (United Way # 8145, Combined Federal Campaign #23867). LAWS is a 501(c)3 organization and our Federal Identification Number is 54-1282756.